CLASSES

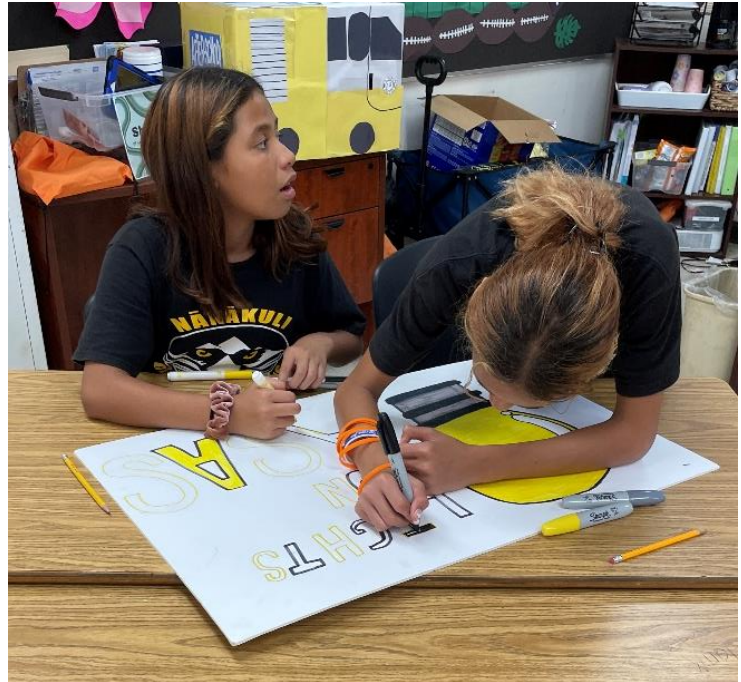

All-Stars at Nānākuli love to cook and bake. From cupcakes with inventive marshmallow frosting to this month's fan favorite "Hawaiian Roll Pizza Grilled Cheese" our kitchen has been a very exciting place to be! These student chefs even had time to recreate a cooking meme.

All-Stars at Nānākuli are so creative. Creative Discovery is well under way, decorating their own tumblers, lending their skills for posters and signs, and so much more. We can't wait to see what new thing they'll create next.

Kanaka Squad is busy prepping for this year's Christmas Ho'ike creating Hula choreography to familiar holiday tunes.

SPECIAL EVENTS/CURRICULUM

We had our Quarter One Ho'ike in October. Students showed their families what they've accomplished in All-Stars so far.

SPECIAL EVENTS/CURRICULUM

Nānākuli All-Stars sure know how to lead a chant. Everyone got pumped up for the Lights On After-School Rally this year to campaign for support for after-school programs.

STEM

Nānākuli All-Stars know that the best STEM projects are the ones that let you play with water. An aluminum foil boat competition taught them to work together as a team and make a boat that could hold the most paperclips.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

One of our All-Stars wrote a special note after a lesson on kindness.

Halloween was a fun adventure when the students played a live game of Where's Waldo with ASAS staff.

SERVICE LEARNING PROJECT – LIFE SERVICE ACTION

There's nothing better than helping out your community while still having fun

This month, our Nānākuli All-Stars made dog toys out of donated old shirts and tennis balls to give to local shelter dogs.
