SPECIAL EVENTS/CURRICULUM

Hawaiian Value of the Week, teaches students that mahalo is to know, recognize and enjoy the good qualities of someone or something, it is thanks, gratitude and admiration. A'ohe pilo uku, means, no reward is insignificant, even a small reward or gift is appreciated. With this in mind, students created thank you posters for the Program Leaders who lead their various after-school classes.

FIELD TRIPS

This month, our students got the opportunity to explore career options in Firefighting, Emergency Medicine and Police work, in a fun and interactive environment. Battalion Chief Honda showed students what each job consists of in the day-to-day operations, as well as the gadgets in the vehicles. We are honored that they took the time out of their busy schedule to give our kids the experience of a lifetime.
