SPECIAL EVENTS /CURRICULUM

After many months of practice, band members performed their Winter Concert.

Many classics were played such as “Holiday Fantasy” by John O’Reilly and at the end we had the surprise of hearing the band accompany a student in singing Mariah Carey’s

“All I Want for Christmas is You”. To our amazement, the petite girl would have delighted Mariah herself with her impressive vocals.

SERVICE LEARNING PROJECT – LIFE SERVICE ACTION

Enthusiastically the children were happy to make cards for local kūpuna, honored elders, at their local senior home, and share aloha. They cut out shapes, wrote cheerful holiday messages and made colorful drawings. It was easy to see how this uplifted and excited the recipients.

Just look at the smile on this woman's face. Clearly our hearts are warmed by the gleeful acceptance by those receiving our cards.

HO'IKE/END OF QUARTER HOLIDAY PARTY

With a dinner made by our students, games, dessert, raffle prizes, music and awards, our end of quarter holiday party was a success. Family members of all ages had a blast experiencing a bit of what our kids get to enjoy on a daily basis and were proud to see them being acknowledged.
