SPECIAL EVENTS/CURRICULUM

Hawaiian Value of the Week is a time when the students love sharing insights on what these values mean to them. “Lokahi” or to be united as one in harmony, is what they enjoyed as they untangled their human knot. To the right you see them colorfully representing their ideas and feelings about “Aloha”; a deep sense of connection and acknowledgement of presence.

The 7th and 8th grade boys and girls had their final games for volleyball, at home. What a beautiful sight to see them cheering for one another, helping each other “shake it off “ if someone made a mistake, celebrating points, helping each other up off of the floor, thanking the others teams for coming to play and practicing overall excellent sportsmanship
