CLASSES

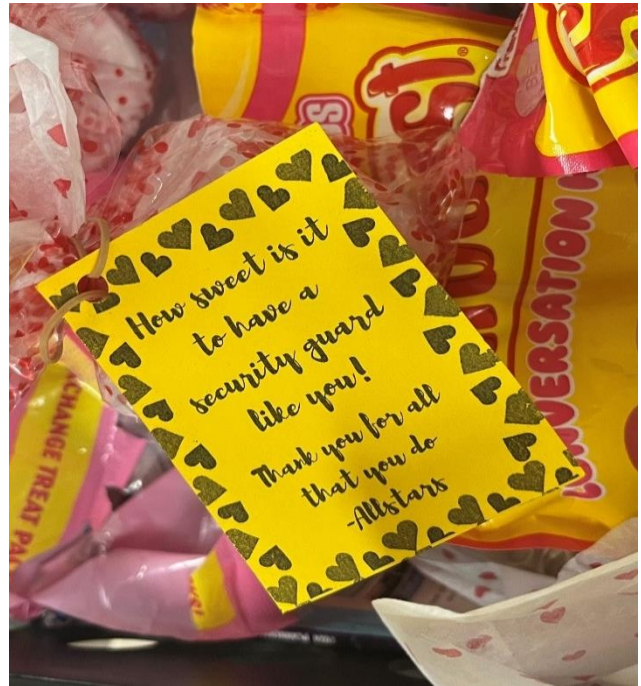

Using their creative skills, Arts and Craft class paint beautiful pieces using an array of bold colors on their designs.

Today was a special practice for both wrestling and football as the football students got an opportunity to go through techniques taught by our wrestling coach and student wrestlers. These techniques will help them to increase development of tackling skills using flexible movements that help their bodies when in a game.

2023-24 Program Highlights February

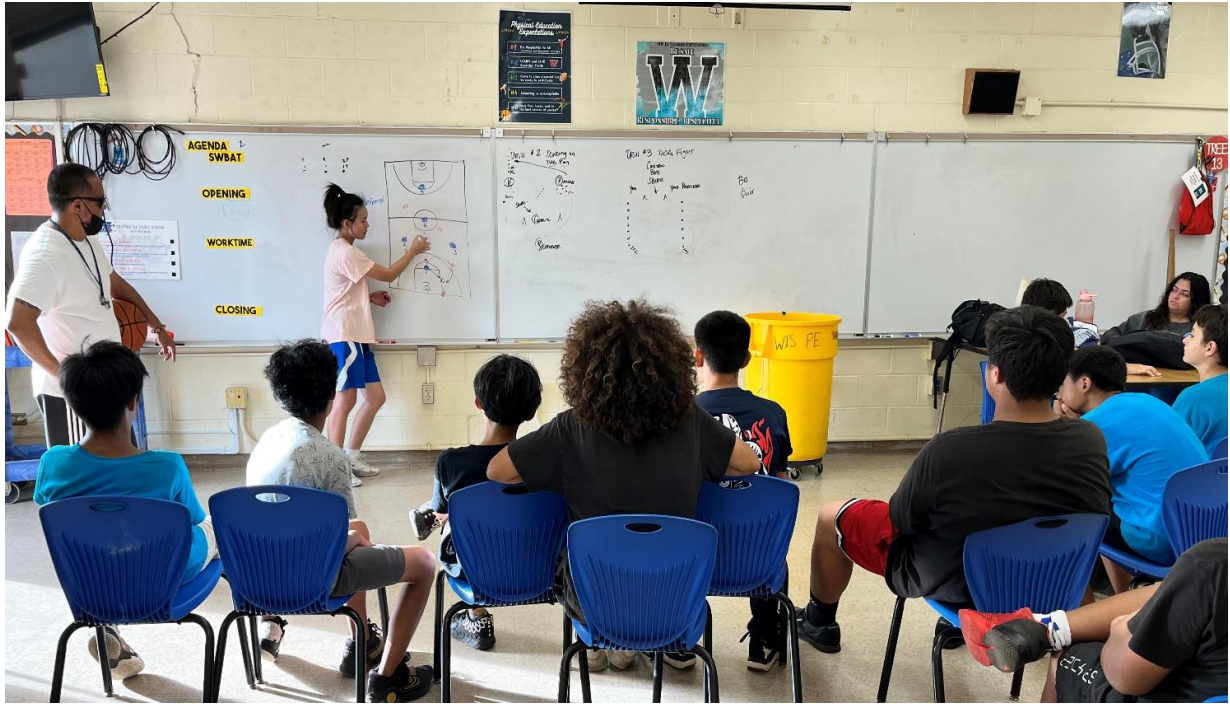

February was a lovely time since it was a month for a little extra love and appreciation to honor our staff such as Security, Custodians and Office staff with a small gesture of kindness. Everyone one loves some sweet treats!

CLASSES

From classroom assignments to the courts is what makes great athletes. Basketball continues to dominate on and off the court at the Iron Will Tournament 2024 while studying for each game.

2023-24 Program Highlights February

Get ready it's that time again where we host our 6th graders at the six-grade orientation. They get to experience all we have to offer at Waianae Intermediate school and the best part is, After-School All-Stars have the privilege of having all the fun playing games and getting them incoming students excited by sharing all the activities we offer after-school.
